The album "Labyrinth of Love" (1989) from the Norwegian melodic rock act BLONDE ON BLONDE immediately turned out to be a sought after collector's gem. Due to the fact that the CD had been released as a strictly limited private pressing, it was quickly sold out right after its release and only few collectors managed to catch an original copy of one of melodic rock's lost treasures. When one of these rare CDs appeared at eBay, prices exploded at bidders usually had to pay at least $300 to get hold of the album.

The band's line up consisted of the singers CHRIS CANDY and BENTE SMAAVIK as well as STEINAR EIKUM (bass), WILLY BENDIKSEN (drums), ROGER GILTON (keyboards), JIMMY IVERSEN (guitar).

NL DISTRIBUTION succeeded in recovering this lost gem and making it available for the numerous fans and collectors from all over the world as an exclusive re-issue edition.

Of course, all tracks have been digital remastered!
