Founded on the ashes of early 80's Hard Rock act CACUMEN, German rock act BONFIRE unleashed their debut album "Don't Touch The Light" in 1986, which not only raised a lot of attention in the Hard Rock scene but also received favourable press from all over the world. Containing classic songs such as the hymn "Hot To Rock", the catchy title track and the heart-wrenching ballad "You Make Me Feel", this impressive effort marked an incredible start for this promising five-piece band.

Soon after the release of "Don't Touch The Light", BONFIRE went through some line-up changes but nevertheless hit the studios with famous producer Michael Wagener to record the album which up to today is regarded as one true classic in Hard Rock history: "Fireworks". Originally released in 1987, this record marked the international breakthrough for the band, in Germany alone sold more than 100.000 copies and took BONFIRE into the national charts for more than 30 weeks. A huge tour with JUDAS PRIEST followed soon after and impressively pointed out that tracks such as "Ready 4 Reaction", "Champion", "Sweet Obsession", "American Nights" and "Give It A Try" will undoubtedly stand the test of time.

After yet some more alterations of the line-up, "Point Blank" saw the light of day in 1989 and fully satisfied the expectations of both fans and media alike. This release impressively continued where the German hard rockers had stopped with "Fireworks". The original release of "Point Blank" - once again produced by Michael Wagener - contained 17 songs including the hit singles "Hard On Me" and "Who's Foolin' Who" and proved this classic Hard Rock band to be on the peak of their career at the time.

These three classic sought after releases, "Don't Touch The Light", "Fireworks" and "Point Blank" are now available digitally re-mastered and with 7 bonus tracks each through the leading re-issue YESTERROCK label.

Eine der bekanntesten deutschen Rockgruppen, BONFIRE, formierten sich 1986 als Nachfolger von CACUMEN. Noch im gleichen Jahr erschien ihr Debüt „Don't Touch The Light“, das erstaunlich viel Aufmerksamkeit in der Hard Rock-Szene erlangte und weltweit mit wohlwollendem Feedback seitens der Presse bedacht wurde. Neben der Kulthymne „Hot To Rock“ und der Mega-Ballade „You Make Me Feel“ präsentierte der Fünfer auf dem ersten Album gleich zwei bedeutende Hits.

Nach einigen Veränderungen im Line-Up begab sich die Band mit dem Top-Produzent Michael Wagener ins Studio, um das Album „Fireworks“ einzuspielen, einem bis heute geltenden Hard Rock-Meilenstein schlechthin. Erschienen im Jahr 1987 markierte dieses Werk den internationalen Durchbruch für BONFIRE, verkaufte alleine in Deutschland mehr als 100.000 Einheiten und hielt sich über 30 Wochen in den Charts. Auf einer extrem erfolgreichen Tour mit JUDAS PRIEST stellte die Gruppe eindrucksvoll unter Beweis, dass Songs wie "Ready 4 Reaction", "Champion", "Sweet Obsession", "American Nights" und "Give It A Try" den Test der Zeit bestehen würden.

Weitere Änderungen in der Besetzung der Band folgten. 1989 erscheint mit "Point Blank" das dritte Album der Ingolstädter. Wiederum produziert von Michael Wagener spricht auch dieser Longplay mit ganzen 17 Tracks qualitativ für sich. Hit-Singles wie „Hard On Me“ und „Who's Foolin' Who“ präsentieren die Deutschen auf dem Höhepunkt ihrer Karriere.

Mit "Don't Touch The Light", "Fireworks" und "Point Blank" veröffentlicht das führende Re-issue- Label YESTERROCK erneut drei gesuchte Hardrock-Klassiker, die allesamt digital remastert wurden und jeweils sieben Bonus-Tracks enthalten!
